

I strongly oppose any changes to the current FCC indecency standards that would allow television and radio stations to broadcast expletives and nudity on the public airwaves, even if brief or "fleeting". I understand that The Supreme Court has confirmed the FCC's authority to enforce policies regarding expletives and nudity. Relaxing the current policy would not serve the public interest, it would only make a growing group of citizens reach for the OFF button on our communications devices. I urge the FCC to reject all proposals that would allow for the broadcast of expletives and nudity on FCC-licensed stations.
